

.Who's Who In Dark Well Space

Acadianus, Rome.....DW La Louisianne

R. Acadianus is a warrior, a scholar, and a mystic. Always gentile but never a dandy, Rome is ready to follow the call of duty and act with honor. He is adventurous but never foolhardy. He follows orders, but his first obligation is to ship and crew. He has a deep sense of responsibility toward his fellow sapient and detests those who prey upon the weak and defenseless. Rome is very ambitious—so he can better help others, of course.

Alff Urr, Gaand.....UN Diis Troia

After being born on the expedition ship UC Explorer One he learned to respect other forms of life as well as their needs and wishes to expand and to advance their history in the annals of our galaxy. But a few months ago he watched the film “Schindlers List” on board of a HSO Shuttle while transferring to Toka I. After this film he wasn’t able any longer to live as a normal Urr. He decided to wipe out all forms of being not respecting each other and their needs and desires. (FI watch out I’m coming!) Quite emotional but nevertheless harder than steelplast if it seems to be necessary! Due to his education in old Urr-tradition he is also very smart, strongly logical (but only in battle) and proud of being an Urr.

Arms, Haus.....SC Diamond Night

She is a unique species (unknown to lifeforms) of power and strength through mind and body. She will go to extremes to get what she wants when she wants it. Haus is logical most of the time yet she has a short temper when she is put into sticky situations. Aggressive always... beware of her temper!

Arn, Jal.....VC Arcanus II

Enigmatic younger brother of Zarth Arn, little is known about Jal. He was placed in command of the Frontier Guard rider defense force on Starhaven in 139. When the 2nd Dominion fell apart, he transferred to Meridian and took over the defenses for Delta Alpha. More recently, he was city manager at one of the defensive cities in Holliman System. It’s suspected the ship name is probably a tribute to his brother.

Aviendha.....NA Far Dareis Mai

An avid science fiction buff of the 20th century, Aviendha became enamored of the TV (television—pre holovision era) series “Star Trek.” It’s vision of a futuristic space faring society stirred in her the longing to explore and discover what secrets her own universe is hiding. To quote her favorite saying, she wishes “to boldly go where no man has gone before.”

Baribaldi.....NA Pick A Boom

Born to fulfill his missions. He will go where no one has gone before.

Black, Ion Mich.....NA Black Dragon

Born and raised a pilot. New to the universe and lookin to become rich.

Blade, Mason.....NX/C Starprobe

Mason Blade, although a city manager for Nexus Research, enjoys writing for the Dark Well Sentinel. He regards other corporations such as FI, FT, and UC as purely hostile without much to offer to human kind (or non-human kind for that matter). Their existence offends him and he will tell others how he feels through his work and writing.

Boulet, Anton.....BW Unmentionable

Boulet’s motto is “don’t ask, don’t tell.” He looks forward to getting to know each and every one of you.

Caragen 759.....NA Lost Empires

Caragen 759 is the 759th cloned regent from a long line of genetic rulers of a now dead colony. He has to settle for a ship to command and start from scratch. But first—he has to find a lost slave.

Cauthon, Matrim.....NA Tain Shari

Non-descript and quite ordinary in appearance, save for a mischievous gleam in his eye and a cocky half grin, Mat would be overlooked in any crowd. His love and luck in gambling led him to a late night high stakes poker game and possession of a new starship. Now, he sees the universe as his playground with near limitless wealth for a guy who can take advantage of it.

Cho, Leilani.....VC/C Teak Gate

The newest in a series of gates linking market systems—Teak Gate serves as the gateway to Juno System, the capital of the Dark Well Republic.

Cromwell, EJ.....VC Scarlet Witch
Born 09-136 to Richard and Victoria, Elizabeth grew up the second of five children. Her mother and eldest brother William died in the 07-142 attack by the UC Nor Ten on DM/C Embassy, which prompted her to enroll at the Frontier Guard academy at age 14. Just one year later, the Guard ceases to exist due to its decline since the fall of the 2nd Dominion. EJ has served on several ships since then and has earned the nickname 'Scarlet Witch,' for the enchanting and sometimes deadly way she does business. Now with her own ship, she is out to rebuild the family business that her father drank away after the death of her mother.

Daanh, Zorr.....UN Vaal-a-raukh
A former political prisoner under the Greyclaw regime, Zorr Daanh found its way to Yule and was nominated as troubleshooter. Rapid deployment is his specialty.

Dante, Xavier.....NX Carrion Corpse
Xavier Dante is a man who has a great appetite for knowledge and power. He has a sharp mind and is very clever, preferring to out-think rather than out-duel, but he won't hesitate to strike a deathblow if need be. Distantly related to Ghengis Khan, Xavier looks forward to the glories space has to offer.

darZeer, Andren.....NX Antagonist
Andren darZeer appeared before Nexus Research for the opportunity to make the heavens his playground. Anything that offers the chance of command or the ability to leave his home planet is a welcome change, assuming the role of ship's captain being no exception. Not to mention the fact that it's easy to flee one's enemies when behind the helm of a starcruiser.

Draco.....NA Ice Man
This is Draco, the new captain of NA Ice Man. I survived the unprovoked attack on a civilian expedition, NA/E Upgrade, on 03-164 by NX. I alone escaped, they say they captured it, there were some military and security but they were all dead from the attack of the NX and VC ships the month before. I now can claim revenge. I have got the little black box from the attack Captain Arius and his crew did on VC/E Windstar Valley. Just before his ship was ripped apart by the expedition's defenses he gave the order for his crew to board the escape pods and they disobeyed and continued to fight. The thing recorded was the ship's crew chanting "Hoo-rahhh! Die you VC scum." Thank you for your time.

Drake, Fox.....SC Endeavor
Age 33, Sex male, 6'1", 190 pounds, medium complexion, black hair, brown eyes. Has been the executive officer on the SC Charon, under the command of Commodore Yaeger for the past several years. Druze, Kurgan.....UN The Obiquity MIRE
I have always been fascinated by the stars. I have longed to explore each and every one of them. Now that opportunity has finally come. All I ask, point me toward the farthest star and turn me loose!

Durlin.....BN Dark Fire
Started out as a cook, specializing in egg dishes. Has always shown leadership potential but had no interest in space until he found out about eggs in space. This piqued his culinary curiosity and pulled enough strings to get his own command. He was quoted as saying, "It will take breaking a few eggs to make a space omelet, but I must try, try and try till I get it right."

Dyke, Hamilkar.....UN/C Hannibals Kastel
The camera showed the large construction project and the gas giant in the background. Computer graphics painted a title on the screen: "H.K. The name for trade. The name for progress. Urr hospitality for all beings. Visit our market, visit THE ARENA. Order now YOUR specialized high-tech product!... H.K.... the name of the business!"

Easchiibii.....NA Riistral Naah
The following statement by Easchiibii was translated by First Officer Toshimas Dan-Gelobe: "Enter on the great stage of galactic players the Riistral Naah (Spirit of Riistral). To some this will be a threat, to others a time of rejoicing. There is no need to fear the Rikel. There is no need to fear peace. Rejoice in prosperity. Rejoice in Riistral."

Eizn, Isaac Urr.....UN Haar Gdat Roarr
After 15 years of staying at home, my father said to me: "o.k. son, gonna get you a wife and a house." That's the last sentence I heard from him. I want to get famous and rich. Get all the power a bear can bear. I want to see new races and planets to learn from them and tell them about our history. (P.S. Humans: heard about the IQ of a bear? Yeah that's 320! on human scale!)

Equis, Mikayla.....VC Crazy Horse
“Crazy Kayla” started out as a marine with the Dominion Rangers specializing in explosives. After the fall of the Dominion, she transferred to Shilonk and fought in “The Loram Wars.” She lost many of her family and friends when Marathon Reach fell, and blames the BN to this day. Seeing the writing on the wall, she applied and was accepted as an ensign crew member on board the FI Rendordon. She was promoted to first officer after the debacle in Ara-Jen and received her own ship as a reward for her outstanding service during the Chalt Incident. Why “Crazy Kayla?” You’ll find out soon enough!

Errolani, P.....VC Black Unicorn
Phaidor, the Security Chief of FI/C Delta Alpha for the past ten years, has taken command of the FI Black Unicorn. A devout Rachelist, she spreads the word of the prophetess and former captain, Rachel Kingsley, as described in the First Book of Rachel. Although Phaidor stands a full 2.0 meters tall, she is considered extremely beautiful with her blonde hair unusually coupled with her Polynesian ancestry. An expeAO in martial arts and other forms of hand-to-hand combat, her real specialty is in electronics. She once constructed a one shot stun weapon by gutting the electronic parts of a city elevator control system. Quote: “Ever expand the boundaries of known space to spread the sacred word of Rachel.”

Farstar.....NA Beowulf
Elected representative of the Farstar Clan. His previous name is unimportant, his new name is. His hatred of BN seems to have been the main factor for his election.

Geist, M.D.....NA Crackerjack
His ship is said to be the second most dangerous thing in space. He is said to be the most dangerous thing in space. He was born of no natural mother, but genetically engineered to be the ultimate soldier. Once long ago on old Earth he was cryogenically sealed in a ship, for he was too dangerous. Now unleashed by a single man with a purpose and Geist has a purpose now too.

Gisgard, Daneel.....VC Sauron
You would do well to withdraw your questions about my past. I assure you that I don’t bring no tail behind me, that must be enough.

Greycoat, Kran.....VC Skull Leader
Kran Greycoat, was chosen through personal combat to command such a noble ship. Kran was a young pup when this ship entered the space above Tokar. He remembers seeing the valiant Urr defense forces impale themselves against the Skull Leader’s defenses. He considers it an honor to command such a ship with such a long, valiant, and honorable history. His only hope is that he can carry on this tradition in defense of his heritage, homeworld, and race.

Haskatas.....UN Sub Colum
Haskatas has been found in a 60,000 year old ship drifting in space. He was a baby who slept for all the years in one of the cryogenic chambers when an Urr warrior discovered him. He released the little baby, who looked like an Urr baby, from the ice and took him with him as his son. Only a few minutes after Haskatas had left the ship it was destroyed in a nuclear explosion before the Urr scientists has a chance for closer examination. He grew up in an Urr family and was educated as an Urrstrike warrior but he is not a real Urr. His face is white and his eyes are red like to human blood. He is larger and a little bit heavier than other Urr. At the age of 20 he decided to go to UN/C Hannibals Kastel. There he signed on UN Sub Colum but only 2 weeks later he killed the captain of the ship in a challenge. Now he is ready to find himself and his history then where he was born over 60,000 years ago—in the deep and empty space of the universe.

Hawkens, Ace.....NX Nova Dragon
Ace Hawkens has been a fighter pilot, a ground pounder, and a leader. He’s been promoted and demoted so many times, he was given a ship. He’s a 40ish dark-haired man with greying temples. His gunmetal grey eyes tell a story of wars and combat. He lied about his age to get into the military at 16. He’s fought in many battles and small wars. His courage in battle and loyalty to his troops makes him a strong and powerful leader. His hopes now are to hook up with some family members and go into “business” of their own. Till then... he wants cheap thrills, cheap women, and cheap bourbon.

Hayek, Adam.....NX Rand
Adam is always wondering about what lies beyond the horizon, and whether it is possible to make money from it. He prefers to keep score with credits, not corpses, but is not averse to generating corpses when someone interferes with his acquisition of credits.

Jade.....NX Gypsy Unicorn

Jade is a beautiful young woman of average height and weight for a human female. Whether it's her true name or not, Jade is the only name she'll answer to. Enjoys drinking and taking shore leave with her crew. Feels most women have no place in a man's world including herself and Captain Charlene Nova, although she plans on making a big mark of her own. "Heaven help the fools who get in my way!"

Jade.....SC Jade Rook

Jade is 5'6", 120 lbs, and is attractive in an athletic way. Her background is sketchy.

Jones, Tomas.....VC Delphinus

Tomas has a long history of working for interstellar haulers. He was aboard the MG Odo in Vitus, spent his early years on ST/C Virgin Of Vitus, and transferred to Delta Alpha in disgust when the city changed its name to Utopia (when Merchants Guild fell apart). He worked his way up to first officer on the VC Black Star plying the star lanes between VC/C Delta Alpha and VC/C Blackshaven. He recently wed his longstanding partner, Trisha, who now serves as his first officer. Tomas worked hard to push the First Imperium into the merger to form ViCorp and, with the help of his good friend, Jon Black, looks forward to the future success of this young company.

Kurle, Jarad.....SC/C Port Royal

Tarad is a very outspoken man. He gets it from his good friend Thomas Rexx, so you can imagine what he will say. He is very simple and gets right to the point. "You mess with my family and you will die. You mess with my friends and you will be a cripple. You mess with me, you will wish you were dead." He is the oldest of eight brothers and sisters. He is 38 years old and his youngest sibling is 23. Don't push him—he'll shoot back.

She looks forward to defending ViCorp against outside aggressors and providing stability for the years to come.

Locke, Calbert.....DW Coroner

Calber Locke is a survivor of the Bnorg invasion of Alexandria. All his relatives and friends were killed in horrific ways in the short span of a few days. He was once an aspiring ship captain, but now he's just solemn and brooding. Some say he's lost his desire to live. But Locke was very promising at one time, having been slated for ship command as soon as a suitable vessel came off the production line, and it's hoped that he will perform as well as he once did, not that his whole demeanor has changed. Calbert Locke is a tall, gaunt man, with long dark hair, and a several-month old beard. He dresses plainly, in a military trenchcoat, and seldom talks to anyone anymore.

After graduation Patrick served on several imperial warships over the next four years, ending his 8 years in the navy as first officer of the FI Rendordon. When the First Imperium ceased to be (due to the merger with IA to form VC), Patrick decided not to join the new organization and returned home. Four years later with the threat of Bnorg assimilation looming over the entire universe, and the need for experienced starship officers by the DWR to combat this threat, Patrick (now 28) has once again donned the uniform of a starship officer, this time as captain. “Your actions define who you are, your words mean nothing if they ring hollow, especially if they have a metallic sound to them.”

Human, 6'1", athletic build, devastatingly handsome, black hair, ice blue eyes, 30 years old. Wife mysteriously disappeared 5 years ago. Deciding he had to find her, he aquired a ship.
